

PHOTO: JULIAN MEEHAN

Our children and climate change

• What are we telling our kids about climate change?

• What can they tell us?

• How can we together face the climate challenge with honesty, compassion, courage and action?

Join the Q&A with Special Guests

• Ann Sanson
Developmental Psychologist, Professorial Fellow University of Melbourne, Fellow of the Australian Psychological Society — on the impact of the climate crisis on current and future generations of children.

• Bronwyn Gresham
Clinical Psychologist; member of Psychology for a Safe Climate, mother of young children.

• Alex Sangster
Climate action advocate and committed activist; Uniting Church minister, mother of climate concerned daughters.

• Asha-Mae Chapman Ralph
Year 12 student, climate provocateur, community activist, and climate-critical voice for concerned young people.

plus
The Climate Choir
conducted by
Robert Dawlings

7.15pm – 9.30pm • Thursday May 9, 2019

Manningham Civic Centre • 699 Doncaster Road, Doncaster

• Melway 47F1; 33F12 • Plenty of parking

Forum sponsored by A GRAND STAND for the Environment Inc. with support from the City of Manningham
info@agrandstandfortheenvironment.org • www.agrandstandfortheenvironment.org