“What She Makes”

All of us buy clothing which directly connects us to Australia’s $23.5 billion fashion industry. But do we think about from where it has come? By whom and in what conditions it is made?

Mostly it is produced overseas by women working in exploitative conditions which entrench their poverty. If this concerns you, there are things we can do to improve the lives of these women and their families.

With minimal increased cost to consumers, Oxfam’s What She Makes campaign is successfully pressing for the major Australian brands to take the action needed to ensure that garment workers making our clothing receive a living wage and work in safer and fairer conditions.

Jointly presented by Manningham and Koonung Heights Uniting Churches and Oxfam.
